

Chatham Music Club October Newsletter 2018

"To stop the flow of music would be like the stopping of time, incredible and inconceivable"
Aaron Copland

EVENTS

Sunday, October 7 at 3:00 pm – CMC Classical Showstoppers at St. Christopher's Church Sanctuary and Parish Hall, 625 Main Street, Chatham. This free, open meeting/musical event will present a wonderful selection of vocal and instrumental performances by CMC members. All are welcome. If you are bringing goodies for the reception, please bring them to the kitchen (lower level) prior to the performance. All performers should arrive and be seated no later than 2:30 pm.

Sunday, October 21, at 4 pm - The American Guild of Organists will present a Hymn Festival and Vespers entitled: "The Church's Journey in Art and Song." The event will be hosted by First Lutheran Church of West Barnstable. Christopher Babcock and Roger Castellani are featured organist and the Rev. Peter Hébert and the Rev. Sue Lederhouse will officiate. The festival will include the installation of officers of the Cape and the Islands Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. All are welcome to attend the service, to be held in the church's sanctuary at 1663 Main St., West Barnstable. For details, visit www.capeandislandsago.org.

October 27 at 7:00 pm and October 28 at 3:00 pm – The Chatham Chorale presents Music Makes Magic - Mystery and Majesty at First United Methodist Church, Chatham. The program features Five Mystical Songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams and highlights from parts 2 and 3 of Messiah by G.F. Handel and is accompanied by chamber orchestra and with Thomas Jones, baritone soloist.

Thursday, November 1 at 5:00 pm - St. Christopher's Episcopal Church of Chatham, will present a Choral Eucharist for All Saint's Day. The Evensong Choir will present, as a part of the service, Faure's magnificent Requiem, featuring Paul McLardy, treble soloist; Paul Soper, baritone; Heather Swanson, violin; Joan Kirchner, choral accompanist; and Maury A. Castro, Organist & Choirmaster.

All are welcome to attend the service to be held in the church's sanctuary at 625 Main St., Chatham. For details, contact the church office, (508) 945-2832, or visit www.stchristopherschatham.org.

MEMBER NEWS

Mondays - 11/5, 11/12, 11/19 at 10:30 am to 12:00 pm at Eldridge Public Library, Chatham. CMC member Chris Allen will present Made in America – An Introduction to American Opera. This 3-part program will include a brief history of the development of opera written by American composers since the mid 1800's, with listening to selections from American operas by such composers as George Gershwin, Samuel Barber and John Adams. Note: The second class (11/12) will take place at the First Congregational Church of Chatham.

Registration information at www.eldredgelibrary.org/learning-series, email at learningseries@eldredgelibrary or 508-945-5170.

