[to be read with a relaxing glass of...in front of a crackling fire at the end of a satisfying day...]

"I think I should have no other mortal wants, if I could always have plenty of music. It seems to infuse strength into my limbs and ideas into my brain. Life seems to go on without effort, when I am filled with music."

Words penned by George Eliot in her novel, Mill on the Floss. A shared language, with which we can reach into the notes of her soul.
